

SOCIETY

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 16.
—Gen. and Mrs. Charles G. Treat, Mr. Treat and Misses Margaret and Katherine Treat have arrived at Schofield Barracks and are living in the commanding general's quarters.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in their usual delightful manner. Later taking their guests to the hop at the Mounted Service Club. About the three small tables, attractively decorated with red baby roses and ferns, were seated Col. and Mrs. William Snow, Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorley, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Allen Smith and Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave.

Capt. and Mrs. John Richardson have returned to Schofield after a month's leave spent in San Francisco.

On Sunday Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Col. and Mrs. William Snow and Mrs. Locke were dinner guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Louie Beard at Fort De Russy.

A delightful dinner on Tuesday evening was the one given by Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin Hyer for Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick, Capt. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Augustus Lawrence and Capt. Thomas Rothwell. Red hibiscus and red-tinted candles made an attractive decoration for the dining table.

The ladies of the artillery brigade entertained at an informal tea on a Sunday afternoon for the ladies of the 4th Cavalry, at the Mounted Service Club. Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. Charles Lloyd and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre were the hostesses for the affair and were assisted by Mrs. John Hauser, Mrs. Carrie McMahon and Miss Edith McMahon. Yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and coriopsis were used effectively throughout the rooms. At the card tables the pretty prizes were won by Mrs. William Bannister and Mrs. Raymond Pratt. Others present included Mrs. William Browning, Mrs. William Littlebrant, Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Mrs. Walter Pick, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. Harry Pfeil, Miss Ellen Rodley, Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Mrs. John Bon-face, Mrs. Harrison Richards, Mrs. Augustus Lawrence, Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Mrs. Howell Estes, Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Mrs. Robert Love, Mrs. Robert Cheney, Mrs. John Corey, Mrs. J. H. Osterhaus, Mrs. Herman Erlenkotter, Mrs. Charles Jewell, Mrs. John Herr, Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs, Mrs. George Paine, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Clarence Day, Miss Helena Palmer, Miss Gertrude Jones, Mrs. Jacob Devers, Miss Katherine Jones and Mrs. William McCleave.

Col. John McMahon had Gen. and Mrs. Charles Treat and Mr. Treat as his dinner guests on Wednesday evening.

Maj. and Mrs. Charles Mettler entertained at a very enjoyable dinner on Saturday evening at the Young hotel, when their guests were Capt. and Mrs. George Paine, Lieut. and Mrs. George Converse and Capt. De Russy Hoyt.

Dinner guests of Col. and Mrs. William Littlebrant on Wednesday evening were Maj. and Mrs. Walter Short, Miss Hortense Short and Lieut. William Dorman.

Capt. and Mrs. George Paine had Sunday night supper with Capt. and Mrs. Harry Pfeil.

Mrs. William Aiken was hostess for the Post Musical Club on Wednesday morning. The program consisted of several vocal numbers by Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Walter Greacen and piano selections by Mrs. Oliver Dickenson and Mrs. Charles Meals. The other club members present at this meeting were Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Mrs. Clarence Day, Mrs. George Bailey. The next meeting of this club will be held on January 3 at the home of Mrs. Dickenson.

Miss Victoria Pick, who is attending school at Punahou College, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick.

Before the artillery hop on Wednesday night, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vanderveer entertained at a most delightful dinner, their guests including Capt. and Mrs. Douglas Greene, Capt. and Mrs. John Herr and Lieut. and Mrs. Oliver Dickenson. A graceful arrangement of ferns and nasturtiums made an attractive decoration for the dining table.

Lieut. Archibald Arnold, who is Gen. Treat's aide-de-camp, is living in the quarters recently occupied by Capt. William Shedd.

As a compliment to their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Osterhaus, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell were hosts at an enjoyable dinner on Thursday evening. Around a table prettily decorated with red poinsettias and candles shaded in the same color were seated Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Dr. and Mrs. Osterhaus and the host and hostess.

Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorley and Miss Evelyn Hodges motored into town on Saturday evening to attend the dinner given by Col. and Mrs. Richard Croxton at the University Club.

Every Sunday evening a jolly crowd of cavalry and artillery people assemble at the Mounted Service Club and have supper on the lanai. Among those present last Sunday were Col. John McMahon, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Maj. Henry Butner, Capt. John Kilbreth, Capt. and Mrs. William Browning, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Carrie McMahon, Capt. and Mrs. John Burnett, Lieut. and Mrs. Dexter Rumsey, Miss Katherine Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. Jacob Devers, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Miss Esther McMahon, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Lieut. Bertram Frankenberg, Lieut. Clift Andrus, Lieut. George Gay and Lieut. Frederick Stewart.

Miss Helen Gurley and Miss Shiras of Seattle, who are spending several weeks in Honolulu, were luncheon guests of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Meals on Thursday.

Capt. and Mrs. Perrine Barney were hosts at a most enjoyable dinner on Wednesday evening, complimenting Miss Ellen Rodley and for Capt. and Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Miss Katherine Dorst, Lieut. Edward Rose, Dr. Charles O'Connor and Master Perrine Barney. The table was artistically ornamented with red poinsettias and dainty hand-painted cards, the handiwork of the skillful hostess, marked the guests' places.

Lieut. Clyde Selleck has joined the Ninth Field Artillery and is living in the bachelor building in the artillery cantonment.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Meals were dinner guests of Capt. and Mrs. Walter Pridgen on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Raymond Pratt had a table of bridge on Friday afternoon for Mrs. John Bonface, Mrs. John Corey and Miss Gertrude Jones. Later, during the band concert, a number of ladies came in to tea, including Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. Harry Pfeil, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Mrs. Henry Kilburne, Mrs. Herman Erlenkotter, Mrs. Wilfred Stokes, Mrs. Dennis Currie, Mrs. John Hauser, Miss Carrie McMahon, Mrs. Jacob Devers and Miss Esther McMahon.

A daughter was born to Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Frankenberg at the Department hospital at Fort Shafter on Friday morning, January 15.

Presiding the 1st Infantry hop on Friday evening Capt. and Mrs. Byard Sneed were hosts at a most delightful supper, their guests being Col. and Mrs. Earl Carnahan, Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorley, Capt. and Mrs. John Richardson, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Blodgett, Capt. and Mrs. Lavergne Jorg, Capt. and Mrs. Walter Pridgen, Capt. and Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Capt. and Mrs. Paul Manchester, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Meals, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight, Miss Margaret McKinley, Miss Margaret Merrill, Miss Ellen Rodley, Miss Hortense Short, Miss Catherine Carnahan, Mrs. John D. Burnett, Lieut. Carl Cohen, Capt. Charles Bankhead, Lieut. Edward Rose, Lieut. John Smith, Dr. Albert White, Lieut. Alfred Sawkins, Lieut. Frank Schneider, Capt. James Ulio and Lieut. John Simons. Poinsettias and red candles made an artistic decoration throughout the house and on the small tables at which the guests were seated.

Masters Bill and Bob Browning, who have been attending the Honolulu Military Academy, are spending the Christmas holidays with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. William S. Browning.

Miss Ellen Rodley will be the honor guest at a large dinner to be given by Capt. and Mrs. Douglas McCaskey on Wednesday evening.

Col. and Mrs. William Snow entertained at a delightful dinner on Saturday evening, the occasion being Col. Snow's birthday. The table decorations were in red, consisting of poinsettias and ferns arranged as a centerpiece and red-shaded candles. Places were marked for Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Maj. Henry Butner and Capt. John Kilbreth.

Miss Hortense Short was the weekend guest of Mrs. Lohman at Fort Shafter last week.

Capt. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow left for the States on Wednesday on the Matsushita. They will be away for about two months.

Sunday night supper guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Herman Erlenkotter were Col. and Mrs. William Snow and Mrs. Locke.

Mrs. B. Walker Atkinson gave a charming little tea on Monday afternoon when she entertained the ladies of the 32nd Infantry. Mrs. Byard Sneed presided at the tea table. The other ladies present were Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Mrs. Fred Pitts, Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Paul Manchester, Mrs. Charles Meals, and Mrs. Walter Pridgen. During the afternoon the newly organized 32nd Infantry band gave its first concert, which was greatly enjoyed.

Capt. and Mrs. Douglas McCaskey were hosts at a most enjoyable dinner on Friday evening when they entertained Colonel and Mrs. James Houston, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodale of Wailuku, Col. and Mrs. Charles Hedekin and Capt. and Mrs. David Stone.

On Sunday evening, Capt. and Mrs. Paul Manchester entertained Capt. and Mrs. Walter Pridgen at dinner.

While the transport Sheridan was in port, Col. and Mrs. B. Walker Atkinson had as their guests Col. and Mrs. Francis A. Winter, who are en route to the Philippines.

A delightful supper on Wednesday evening was the one over which Capt. and Mrs. John Corey presided. The several small tables which were used to seat the guests were decorated with bowls of pink sweet peas and pink-shaded candles. Artistic hand-painted cards marked the places for Col. and Mrs. William Bannister, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Pfeil, Capt. and Mrs. George Paine, Lieut. and Mrs. Wilbur Rogers, Lieut. and Mrs. Barrett Glover, Lieut. and Mrs. Jacob Devers, Miss Margaret Treat, Miss Katherine Treat, Miss Carrie McMahon, Miss Esther McMahon, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Katherine Jones, Lieut. Clift Andrus, Lieut. Bertram Frankenberg, Lieut. Archibald Arnold, Lieut. Clyde Selleck, Lieut. William Covell and Lieut. Raymond McQuillen. Later the party attended the hop at the Artillery pavilion.

Dinner guests of Maj. and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins on Thursday evening were Capt. and Mrs. Perrine Barney.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. John Baxter gave a pleasant little sewing party and tea for Mrs. Hugh Keen, Mrs. Frederick Black, Mrs. Karl Truesdell, Mrs. Ernest Carr and Mrs. Eley Denon.

DANCING

Learn the latest New York dances from Madame Lester, Honolulu's leading teacher—namely, the "Maurice Glide" Waltz, Two-Two, One Steps and Fox Trot. Office hours 9 to 6; L.O. O. F. hall.
Phones 1162 or 3875.

Christmas Gifts

For Girls---

Such a wealth of dainty, appropriate things is presented that the choice finally dwindles to the question of quality. That, in turn, will bring you inevitably to Wichmans:

For Debutante	For "Sweet 16"	Little Maid
Lavallieres	Coin Cases, Gold or Silver,	Necklaces of Tiny, Perfectly matched Pearls,
Diamond Bracelets,	Cloth Brushes,	Locket of Platinum or Gold,
Shopping Bags,	Hair Brushes,	Rings,
Desk Sets,	Rings in Dainty Designs,	Spoons, Initialed, either Gold or Sterling,
Birth Month Spoons,	Enameled French Novelties	Child's Sets of Knives, Fork and Spoon.
Silver Novelties,	Purses,
Necklaces of Jewels, Platinum or Gold.	Class or School Pins.

H. F. Wichman & Co.
Platinumsmiths and Jewelers

The Shop Where Gift Choosing is a Pleasure.

Some rare old PORCELAINS

Nowadays nearly everybody has an appreciation for the rare beauties and fine craftsmanship of the old Chinese porcelains, so that they are among the most appropriate things that might be given for

CHRISTMAS

Brush Jars
Wine Jugs
Vases
Buddhas
Tea Cups and Saucers
Pitchers
Etc.

The assortment is large and the costs varying. Many of the pieces are from one to three centuries old.

at

GURREY'S

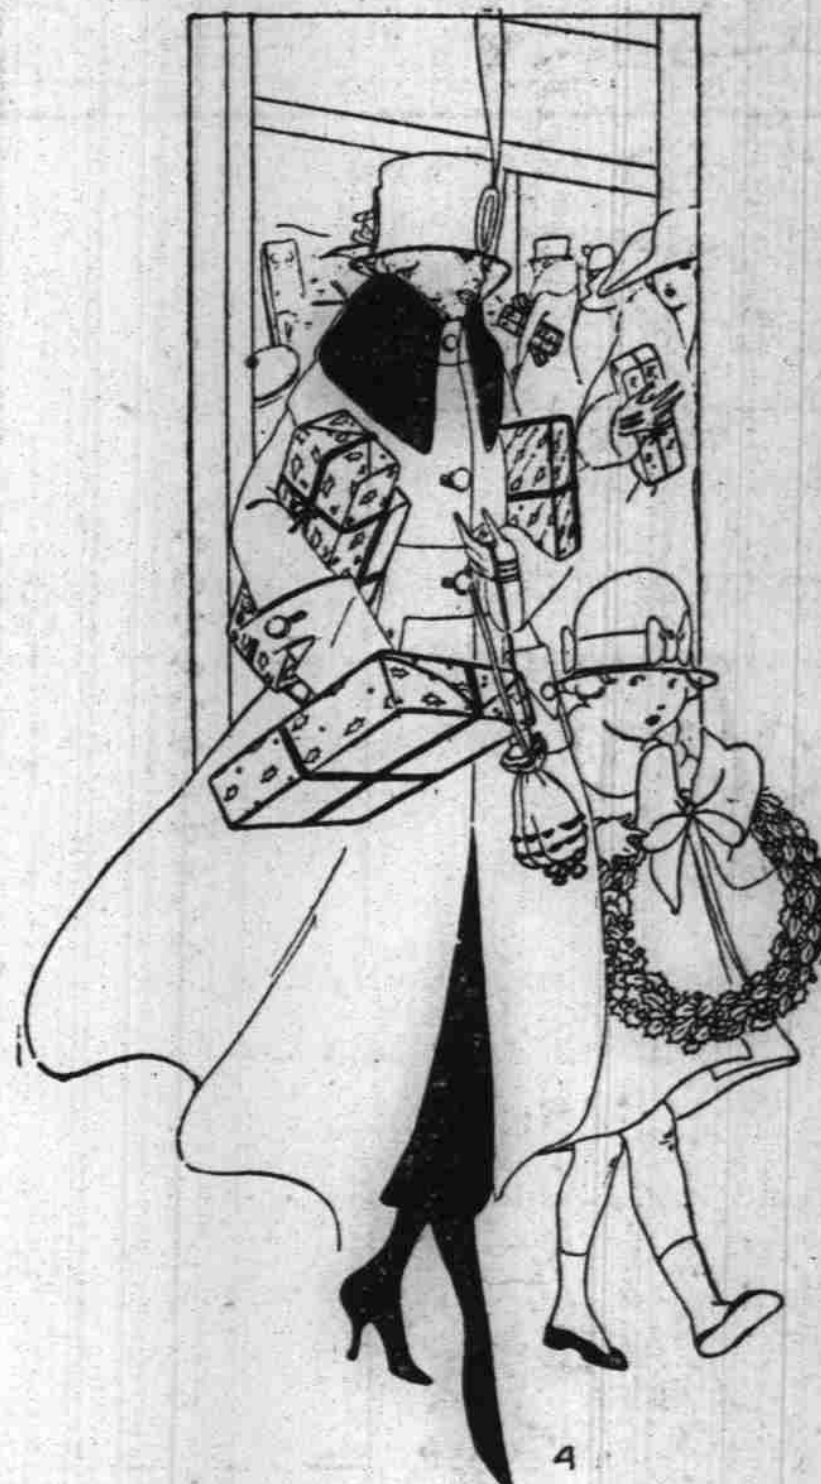

1066 Fort Street

Honolulu's One Fine Art Store

Christmas Shoppers

will find wonderful creations in Oriental Goods and Novelties here to please friends and loved ones.

Japanese Silks and Crepes for Kimonos, Shirt Waists, Evening Gowns and Novelties.

Here you will find the most exquisite Embroidered Handbags, Centerpieces, and Embroidered Strips, Parasols, Mandarin Coats, Embroidered Japanese Screens, Toilet Articles, Etc.

"Open Evenings Till Xmas"

SA YEGUSA

Nuuanu St., near Hotel

Phone 1522